6ᵗʰ International Conference on Frontiers in Computing Systems

Call for Special Sessions

COMSYS 2025

September 25-27, 2025, at Warsaw University of Technology, Warsaw, Poland

Organized by

Warsaw University of Technology, Poland, and COMSYS Educational Trust, Kolkata, India

The COMSYS 2025 scheduled for September 25-27, 2025 in Warsaw University of Technology, Warsaw, Poland, invites researchers, practitioners, and enthusiasts from around the world to submit proposals for special sessions. This year, we aim to broaden our horizons with sessions that reflect the latest advancements, innovative ideas, and emerging trends across Computing and Systems.

Special Session Proposal Submission

Overview

Special Sessions complement the regular program of the conference, offering a focused discussion on current topics of interest. These sessions should provide an overview of the state-of-the-art and highlight important research directions in a field of special interest to conference participants.

Topics of Interest

We are seeking proposals on a wide range of topics in Computing and Systems but session should be on a single topic and very specific. The proposed topic should not match with any track name of the conference COMSYS-2025.

Proposals that integrate interdisciplinary perspectives or introduce novel approaches to the conference themes are particularly welcome.

Proposal Format:: Call for Special Sessions

Each proposal should include:

- Title of the Special Session: Reflective of the theme and content.

- Session Organizers: Names, Affiliations, Contact information, and CV of the organizers.

- Abstract: A summary (200-300 words) describing the session's focus and significance.

- Rationale: Explanation of the session's relevance to the conference themes and its potential contribution to the field.

- List of Topics: Specific topics to be covered.

- Format: Description of the session format (e.g., panel discussion, paper presentations, interactive workshops).

- Potential Contributors: A preliminary list of contributors (if available).

- Expected Audience: Estimate of the audience size and composition.

- Potential Reviewers: A tentative list of reviewers
